CABLE ADDRESS: DONLARD, NEW YORK

March 16th, 1953

25X1A

██████████, Esq.
 Central Intelligence Agency,
 Washington 25, D. C.

My dear ██████████ 25X1A

In June 1951 I talked with Larry ██████████ 25X1A about one Lieutenant ██████████ who had been in the Navy and said that he would like employment in CIA after he finished his active duty in the Navy. He had a background of OSS having been one of the men of 101. On the 19th of June Larry wrote me as follows: "Lieutenant ██████████ came in 25X1A
 to see me yesterday about possible employment here
 after he finishes his active duty with the Navy.
 In view of his OSS background and his thorough investigative experience of the last few years, I should think he might be very useful, all other 25X1A things being equal". ██████████ has asked me to say a word to you about him. If you think there is possible employment for him, would you please communicate with him.

Sincerely yours,

William J. Donovan
